

Natalie most recently filmed the role of Serena in the TV series BLACKSHORE directed by Dathai Keane for the BBC. Just prior she filmed the lead role of the designer and architect Eileen Gray in LIFE IS EVERYTHING, a film directed by Beatrice Minger and Christoph Schaub for Arte.

Further screen credits include CONVERSATIONS WITH FRIENDS directed by Lenny Abrahamson & Leanne Welham for the BBC & HULU. Prior to that she filmed the role of Pia alongside Denise Richards and Jane Seymour in José Luis Moreno's GLOW AND DARKNESS, and the role of Sally in the short film HONESTY directed by Roxy Rezvany for BBC Film.

Other roles include the part of Hester in EQUUS directed by Ned Bennett at Trafalgar Studios; the part of Veronica in THE OMISSION OF THE FAMILY COLEMAN directed by Laurence Boswell for the Ustinov Theatre Royal, Bath; and the role of Valerie in the Mercury Theatre's touring production of THE WEIR directed by Adele Thomas.

Further recent work includes CASUALTY for the BBC, the role of Thea Radley in DOCTORS for the BBC and the role of Hermione in THE WINTER'S TALE directed by Declan Donnellan for Cheek By Jowl.

On Stage, Natalie recently appeared as Amanda in THE GLASS MENAGERIE, directed by Emma Jordan.
