

Ollie will be playing a lead role of Kyle alongside Rebecca Hall in THE LISTENERS, directed by Janicza Bravo for Element Pictures.

In 2023 Ollie was nominated for an Irish Film and Television Award for Best Leading Actor (Film) for his performance as Kevin in THE SPARROW directed by Michael Kinirons. The part of Kevin was Ollie's first screen role.

Ollie had an early start as an actor, playing the title role in Dead Centre's HAMNET – a near one-man show about the death of Shakespeare's 11 year old son, written and directed by Bush Moukarezal (who performed the role of Shakespeare) and Ben Kidd.

Ollie was 12 years old at its premiere at the Schaubuhne in Berlin. It later ran at Dublin Theatre Festival and toured to the UK, Holland and US. He was nominated for Best Actor for the role at the Irish Times Theatre Awards 2018 and won Best Visiting Actor at Boston's IRNE Awards 2019.

His album WE CAN SEE BLUE was made on his iPhone during lockdown in March in a small busy house. He recorded it by placing the headphones inside the guitar and mixing on garage band.
