

Tadhg most recently filmed the feature HALLOW ROAD alongside Rosamund Pike and Matthew Rhys, directed by Babak Anvari; and SHARDLAKE directed by Justin Chadwick for The Forge & Disney+. The series is based on CJ Samson's best selling Detective Shardlake crime novel series.

In 2023 Tadhg filmed a core role as Alto in the ensemble cast of TIME BANDITS, directed by Taika Waititi. TIME BANDITS is produced for Apple TV+ by Paramount, and written by Waititi, Jemaine Clement, and Iain Morris.

Further recent credits include the comedy feature APOCALYPSE CLOWN directed by George Kane; the horror feature ODDITY directed by Damien McCarthy, alongside Gwilym Lee and Steve Wall; THE ENGLISH starring Emily Blunt, directed by Hugo Blick for BBC One and Amazon Prime; and a further season of BRASSIC (S1 through S4) for Sky.

Recently released projects include CONVERSATIONS WITH FRIENDS directed by Lenny Abrahamson and Leanne Welham for Element, HULU & the BBC; Guy Ritchie's WRATH OF MAN alongside Jason Statham, Niamh Algar, and Holt McCallany; the part of Johann opposite Tanya Reynolds in the BFI-backed feature UNDERGODS, directed by Chino Moya; and Robert Eggers' feature THE NORTHMAN.

Most recent stage credits include the role of Damus opposite Ruth Negga's PORTIA COUGHLAN in a rehearsed reading of the play directed by Caroline Byrne for Kwame Kwei-Armah at the Young Vic, BALLYTURK written and directed by Enda Walsh, which ran at St. Ann's Warehouse in New York to excellent reviews, and BAD ROADS with Kate Dickie & Ria Zmitrowicz, which was directed by Vicky Featherstone at the Royal Court Theatre, London. Tadhg is Dublin based.
